The Commandments of the Church
By St. Nicholas of Zicha (+1956)

Every Christian Ought:

To go to church for worship every Sunday, and on Great Holy Days, besides the every-day private prayers.

To keep the four Lents and other fasting days.

To respect the priests as spiritual fathers.

To confess sins with repentance before a priest.

To avoid association with unbelievers and from harmful reading materials.

To pray for the living and the dead.

To keep special fasts and prayers when they are ordered by the Church authorities in times of emergency such as war, pestilence, hunger, drought, etc.

To support financially the Church, Her institutions and servants.

To educate children by the Faith of our Fathers, and to admonish fallen-away to return to the Faith.

To help in every respect the Orthodox Church's mission in this world.

Vacation Planning – Orthodox Churches

An online directory of churches in North America on the site: Orthodoxy in America www.orthodoxyinamerica.org On Sundays, even while on vacation we should keep holy the Lord's Day.

Lemonade Evenings – July 14, & 21

An informal discussion will be held at the rectory on whatever topics participants wish to talk about. This is an opportunity to learn, share, speak and listen. Also – a glass of cold beverage! Time: 7:45p.m. to 9:00p.m.

Namesday Greetings

St. Julia/July 16th: Julia Cresina, Julia Galida;
St. Marina/July 17th: Marianna Vajda; Margaret Ploof; Many Blessed Years!

40th Day Memorial

For Julia Yadlowsky, July 21st, Monday at 9:30a.m.

Sympathy

Is expressed to Protodeacon Paul Sokol and his family, on the repose of his mother Justina (+July 5th). The Funeral was held in Herkimer, New York on July 9th. May her memory be eternal!

Offerings for the week of July 13th

Olive Oil – in memory of Michael; for the health of Robert (birthday); in memory of Alex; for the health of Marian and Georgeta.

Wine – in memory of Joan; in thanksgiving to God for everything.

If you are a shut-in and wish to be visited by the parish priest with the holy sacraments or just prayers and a conversation, please let Father James know. Some that are shut-in wish frequent visits and others not so frequent – and sadly, some want no visitations. It is important that those home bound feel part of our community.

Parish Synodicon – Memory Eternal!

OCA Town Meeting – Saturday, Aug. 2nd in South River.

Ss. Peter & Paul Church in South River will be the site for a 2 hour (10:00a.m.-12:00p.m) open forum for clergy and laity to speak to Metropolitan Herman on the subject of the crisis in our Church.

The meeting is designed for the faithful to express their feelings in an atmosphere of openness and candor. The bishop presiding is to hear the voice, pain, ideas and concerns of the faithful; and not engage in any response or dialogue.

There are four questions that govern the forum:

- 1) How has the scandal affected you personally?
- 2) What solutions would you offer to make things right?
- 3) What would you like to see happen at the All-American Council this November?
- 4) How do you envision the future of our OCA?

The OCA news site (www.orthodoxnews.org) offers views of a recent Town Hall Meetings held.
