Traveling or Vacationing

To find the nearest Orthodox Church go to: www.orthodoxyinamerica.com. A "Prayer for Travelers" may be requested at the end of the Sunday Divine Liturgy, ask when you venerate the Cross.

Lemonade and Conversations

On July 3, 10 and 24 from 7-8p.m. you are invited to – depending on weather and numbers of attendees – to the gazebo or rectory for an hour of conversations about "anything under the sky" and some cold lemonade. An evening opportunity to meet informally and just talk.

July Month Film – "Ss. Peter & Paul"

This film presentation of the ministry of the Chiefs of the Apostles will be shown in two segments:
Sun. July 15th at 11:45a.m. (96 minutes – Part 1)
Tues. July 17th at 7:00p.m. (96 minutes – Part 2)

Annual Blessing of "Mobile Things"

July 22nd, Sunday after the Divine Liturgy. Autos, bikes, skate boards, skies, roller blades, surf boards, etc. will be blessed for safe usage.

Annual Parish Picnic – Sunday, July 22nd

Our Picnic will be held in East Brunswick at 2:00p.m. Please consult the flyer (pink covered) posted in the hall and on the vestibule stand. Plan to come!

Your Summer Offerings

Before you leave for vacation, please be sure to bring or mail in your Sunday Offering Envelopes. Good stewardship is on-going; as are bills to be paid.

Half-Year Statements of Offerings

The first six months of offering statements have been mailed out. Please examine the statement and the accompanying letter. Questions may be addressed to our recording secretary Katherine Mantazos (908-428-6258).

Appreciation

Appreciation is expressed to Archpriest Paul Shafran for serving the Divine Liturgy on July 8th, as Father James attended the "Opening Weekend" services at Christ the Savior Church in Berlin, Maryland.

Reminder on Pastoral Care Visitation

Your priest can visit you in the hospital, rehabilitation center or nursing home – only if he is told by yourself or family members that you are there. Federal laws prohibit access to names on census lists in these health centers by religion. Please be sure your priest knows where you are and your spiritual needs.
