Nativity Lent – Daily Prayer for Peace

Let us be faithful in this daily prayer.

2015 Equal Sacrifice Model is in Effect

Each of our 70 parishioners (100%) is asked to make an extra offering over the amount of your usual offering of $2.87 to $8.62 per week to cover this year's deficit. This is based on 12 months. The average increase for the last 8 months was a base of only $1.61. This is far short of the need.

Food Pantry Basket During Nativity Lent

For the duration of Nativity Lent (Nov. 15 – Dec. 20) baskets will be in the church vestibule to collect staple food items for the local Food Pantry.

The 3 Growth Seeds for November Month

First, on each of the 5 Sundays make it a point to learn the name of a parishioner you do not know. Second, make a resolution to learn something from the Sunday Bulletin and share it in discussion with your spouse and children. Third, be sure to venerate an icon in your home with a kiss at least once a day.

Nativity Lent Fasting Norms

A fast is observed from meat, dairy, fish, wine and oil products. There are days permitting fish, wine and oil. These days are indicated on your Parish Wall Calendar, the November Printed Calendar and the Calendar on the Parish Website.

Christmas Cookie Walk – Sign Up Sheet for Bakers

The annual Christmas Cookie Walk will take place on Sunday, Dec. 13th at 11:30a.m. Bakers are sought. Please sign-up at the vestibule stand. For more information please contact Jill at 908-541-9586/jap2002@optonline.net.

The 100th Anniversary Video – Dec. 6th

The presentation of the 100th Anniversary Video (80 minutes) will take place on Sunday, Dec. 6th at 12:15a.m. Invite your friends for Liturgy that day (St. Nicholas Day) and the Coffee Hour and Film to follow.

Next Adult Study Evening

Dec. 10th, Thursday 7-8:30p.m.

General Church Cleaning

Dec. 12th, Saturday 10:30a.m.

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Nine Points For Consideration

1. The Parish Church of Ss. Peter & Paul in Manville, is supported only by our parishioners. 85% of the total income is received by means of the 52 Sunday Envelopes.
2. All parishioners receive bi-monthly envelopes in the mail. If you are not receiving envelopes, you are not registered as a parishioner.
3. In terms of financial support of the parish, there is no required or suggested amount in dollar value of your offering. There are no minimal or maximal guidelines.
4. Parishioners are strongly encouraged to adopt the proportionate giving model of offering that has been implemented in our parish since 2006.
5. In adopting the proportionate giving model, you self-determine what percentage (%) of your income you will offer as a “first-fruit” offering on a regular basis, offered in thanksgiving using the Sunday envelope system.
6. The percentage of an offering may be the standard “tithe” (10%) or it may be a “proportionate offering” of any meaningful self-determined percent as for example, 3%, 5%, 7%, 12 % etc.
7. The Parish Church does not examine or keep records on who is or is not a proportionate giver, this is between you and God. Total amounts of offerings are kept only for tax purposes.
8. The concept of “first offering” means that we dedicate to the Lord the first portion of our income as an offering of thanksgiving. We understand and separate this offering from our latter obligations and needs, food shelter, mortgage, utilities, entertainments, etc. which belong to the realm of paying bills.
9. Any gift offered to the Lord and His work through His Church is an acceptable offering inasmuch as the one offering the gift offers “oneself” as the primary gift. Our offerings are tokens expressive of our love and commitment to the Lord and are made in a cheerful, generous and sacrificial manner.

For reference and further reading: “The Theology of Stewardship.” This 19 page booklet by the Orthodox Church in America (OCA) gives a complete examination of proportionate giving. This is the key document that guides our parish understanding of financial offerings. The booklet may be found on the vestibule stand or picked-up in the hall office.

Two Mites

The relationship of a person and his money is fundamentally a spiritual matter: it reveals as much about his relationship with God as does his discipline of prayer or any other "religious" activity. Jesus said in Matthew 6:21, "Where your treasure is there shall your heart be also." Somehow, in some way, what a person does with his money, how he thinks about it, where he spends it, what he will do to earn it, and the things to which he will give it, are some of the real clues to who he is inside, to what is essentially important to him, to what is really in his heart... The places where we make our most serious investments are the places where our real self, our inner self, is going to be most interested, most teachable, most responsive, and most open. To deal with a person in terms of what he does with his money is to deal with most people where they really live.

Time, Talent and Treasure

BY REV. MATTHEW BROWN

IF EACH CHRISTIAN IS CALLED to be a Steward of the good things God has given him, then one of the first questions which should be asked is: "What are those good things?" In each of our lives there are numerous things which we can count as blessings.

Have you ever worked at a retail store? If so, you have probably had to "do inventory" at least once or twice. Each of us needs to do an "inventory" of our own life and consider the things with which God has entrusted us. Consider taking your inventory using these three categories: Time, Talent, and Treasure.

Time is truly a gift. Any person who has had a near-death experience or who is a survivor of cancer knows what it is like to have the time you thought was snatched from you miraculously returned. Usually these experiences provide clarity to the person as to how they will now spend this time which has been given them. Is it necessary for each of us to have such a fearsome experience in order to have our own moment of clarity? More important than the extra days, months or years, is the realization of how precious the time we have is. What are you doing with your time?

If you were to look at how you spent this past week, what would you find? Would what you actually do match what you say your priorities are? Would you find that you don't spend as much time with your family as you thought? Or would you find that you do not attend church as often as you ought to – or as often as God would want you to? Such an examination would likely challenge us to set our priorities straight, making sure God, His Church, our family and friends, and the other loves in our lives are at the top.

What are the "good things" which God has entrusted to us?

We should also challenge ourselves by asking, "How am I using the talents given to me by God?" We all have a certain number of talents given to us, and we are entrusted by the Lord to use them for the benefit of our family, our community, God, His Church, and His people. What are the abilities, expertise, social connections, and influence God has given me? Do I spend them on selfish interests, or do I utilize them for the benefit of others?

Finally, we should examine the use of our treasure. We all possess a certain amount of wealth, whether through hard work or inheritance. But the truth is that even if it seems like we have earned all of our wealth ourselves, we have not. In fact, there is no success any of us has ever achieved solely on our own. We are always standing on the shoulders of others. Someone else always has a part to play in our success, even if it is small... and God is always at the source of every success, giving us His blessing.

Examining our use of Time, Talent, and Treasure is about being intentional and thoughtful about our Christian life. If we are haphazard or casual in our approach to stewardship, or if we fail to think in these terms at all, then we are very likely to fall short as Christians. And our willingness, or reluctance, to take this spiritual "inventory" does not just affect us; it impacts those we love most: God, His Church, and our family. Stewardship is ultimately about love and loving intentionally.

How we give in American Orthodox parishes

In the Orthodox Church in America, an average household gave about $3,000 to a parish in regular contributions in 2014.

When donations to a parish are measured as a percentage of income, higher-income households are less generous than lower-income households. A typical (median) Orthodox household earning between $30,000 and $49,999 gives 3.75% of its income to the parish, whereas households in the $90,000 - $109,999 income category give 2.5%.

Converts to Orthodoxy give almost twice as much annually to their churches as "cradle" Orthodox when measured in actual dollar amounts, and they give more than twice as much when donations are measured as a percentage of a household's income (4.9% versus 2.2%).

When it comes to the major personal motives to give to the Church, 60% of parishioners give to the Church because this is part of their religious convictions and they believe that "it is what God expects of us." The remaining 40% of church members contribute to their parish communities mainly because of pragmatic reasons – to pay bills and to take care of the needs of their parish communities.

STEWARDSHIP IN THE SAINTS

SAINT JOHN THE MERCIFUL was born on Cyprus in the seventh century. When the patriarchal throne of Alexandria fell vacant, the emperor Heraclius and all the clergy begged St John to occupy the Patriarchal throne. The saint worthily assumed his archpastoral service, concerning himself with the moral and dogmatic welfare of his flock.

He considered his chief task to be charitable and to help all those in need. At the beginning of his patriarchal service he ordered his stewards to compile a list of all the poor and downtrodden in Alexandria. The saint ordered that they be provided for each day out of the church's treasury. On Wednesdays and Fridays, sitting on the cathedral's church portico, he received everyone in need. He settled quarrels, helped the wronged, and distributed alms. It was during this period that the emperor Heraclius led a tremendous army against the Persians. The Persians ravaged and burned Jerusalem, taking a multitude of captives. St John paid for their ransom.

The saint never refused beggars. One day he met a beggar and commanded that he be given six silver coins. The beggar changed his clothes, ran on ahead, and again asked for alms. St John gave him six more silver coins. When the beggar tried a third time and the servants began to chase him away, St John ordered that he be given twelve silver coins, saying, "Perhaps he is Christ putting me to the test." Twice the saint gave money to a merchant that had suffered shipwreck, and a third time gave him a ship filled with grain, with which the merchant had a successful journey and repaid his obligations.

SCRIPTURE AND STEWARDSHIP

1 Timothy As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life. (6:17-19)

1 Corinthians We want you to know, brothers, about the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia, for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own accord, begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints – and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us. (8:1-5)

Mission Statement

First Fruits is written to encourage everyone in our Diocese to be good stewards of all that God has given them. Please feel free to send comments and suggestions for future articles to Archpriest Gary Breton at gjbretton@gmail.com.
